

Glen Dene

Hawea High Country Experience

CORPORATE DAYS

Objectives: The objective for our business is to establish long-term relationships with people who want to share Glen Dene as a recreational venue for themselves, friends, family and corporate clients.

The Glen Dene team can project manage your corporate day out for groups (from 5 to 50) for most of the year. Summer conditions certainly prevail in the Queenstown Lakes district. The Corporate Days are for groups on all forms of corporate get together including management strategy meetings, team incentive for sales, marketing and research groups. Let us manage the logistics and provide professional staff support while you relax, enjoy yourselves and achieve your own objectives

All of our locations, and suppliers have been personally vetted and are recommended by us. We understand the importance of having the correct locations and suppliers to make sure the event runs without any problems.

We like to add our own element of dynamics to the trip and provide some memorable and fun activities to ensure your team has some time to relax and get to know the others in the group (refer to case studies).

We organise your transport to Glen Dene for a days adventure. When you arrive we greet you with morning tea and an introduction for the day.

Clay bird shooting for those who would like to let off a bit of Gun Powder; this is a great way to have a little competition and fun with your team; you will be taught gun safety and the skills of clay bird shooting.

Lunch in the marquee over looking the Lake in one of the area's more renowned gardens. Enjoy High Country hospitality and the joys of space and tranquillity in the High Country.

Lunch with some great Central Otago wines and High Country venison and Merino lamb, fresh salads, coffee and famous Cowells Pavlovas from Dunedin.

After Lunch wander at will around the garden to freshen you up and discuss the various plants that make this one of the areas top gardens.
